

CLIMATE CHANGE SURVEY RESULTS (2019/2020)
BELIEFS ABOUT THE ROLE OF HUMAN ACTIVITY IN CLIMATE CHANGE

VIEWS ON THE GLOBAL ENVIRONMENT

Around two-thirds of people living in Jersey believe the climate is changing and human activity is mainly responsible, compared to 58% in Guernsey and half of the Isle of Man residents.

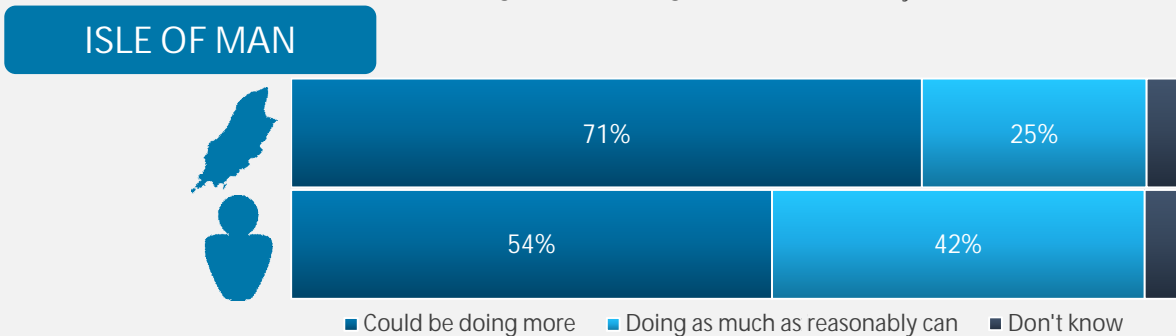

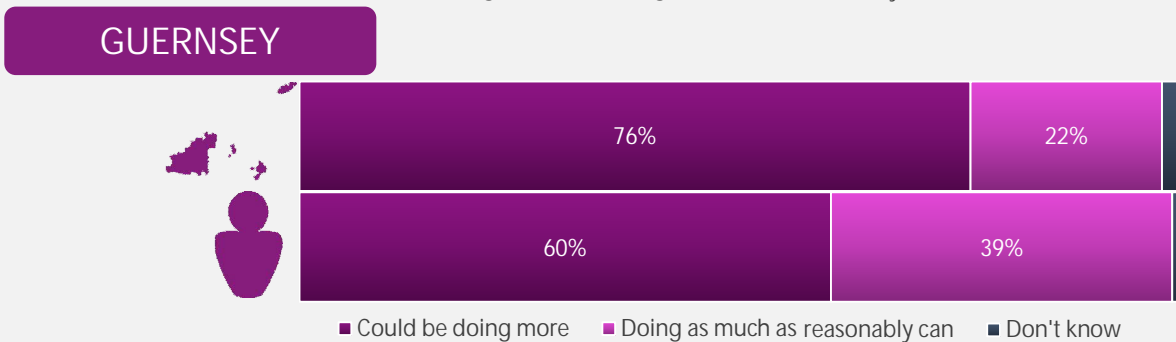

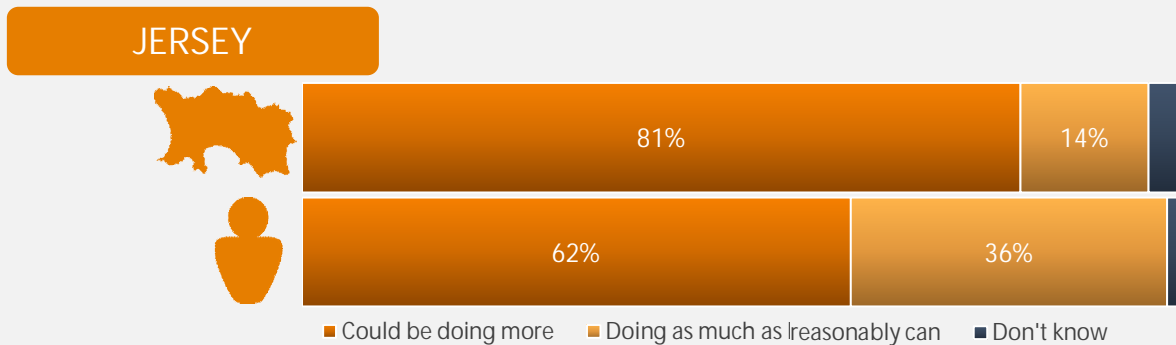

VIEWS ABOUT AVOIDING THE EFFECTS OF CLIMATE CHANGE (% of those who believe the climate is changing)

N.B. A small proportion of people do not believe it is necessary to take any steps to 'avoid the worst effects of climate change'

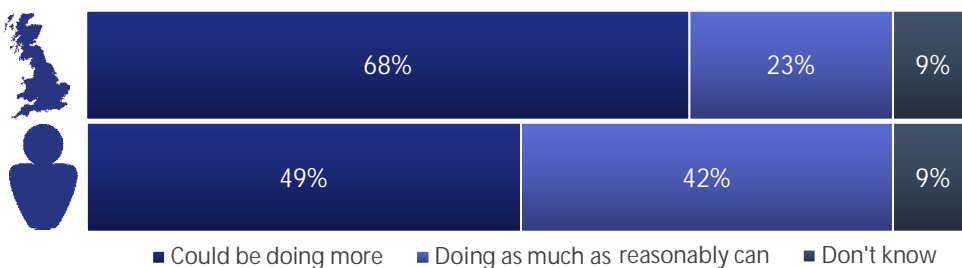

'DOING MORE TO TACKLE CLIMATE CHANGE': VIEWS ON OUR RESPONSIBILITY AS (% of those who believe the climate is changing)

...An Island: 8 out of 10 residents believe Jersey could be doing more to tackle climate change, which is slightly higher than in Guernsey and the Isle of Man (76% and 71% respectively).

...Individuals: 42% of Isle of Man residents believe they, personally, are already doing as much as they reasonably can (or need to), compared to 39% of Guernsey and 36% of Jersey residents.

Compared to a survey conducted in the UK* (% of UK Residents)

Residents from the Crown dependencies are more motivated than UK residents to do more to tackle climate change, at both a country and individual level.

The 'Climate Change' survey was undertaken by Island Global Research in November 2019. The survey was completed by 2,399 residents in the Crown Dependencies (834 Guernsey, 838 Jersey and 718 Isle of Man). *Results of an International survey on climate change that was undertaken in 28 countries were published by YouGov in September 2019.
